WELCOMÉ

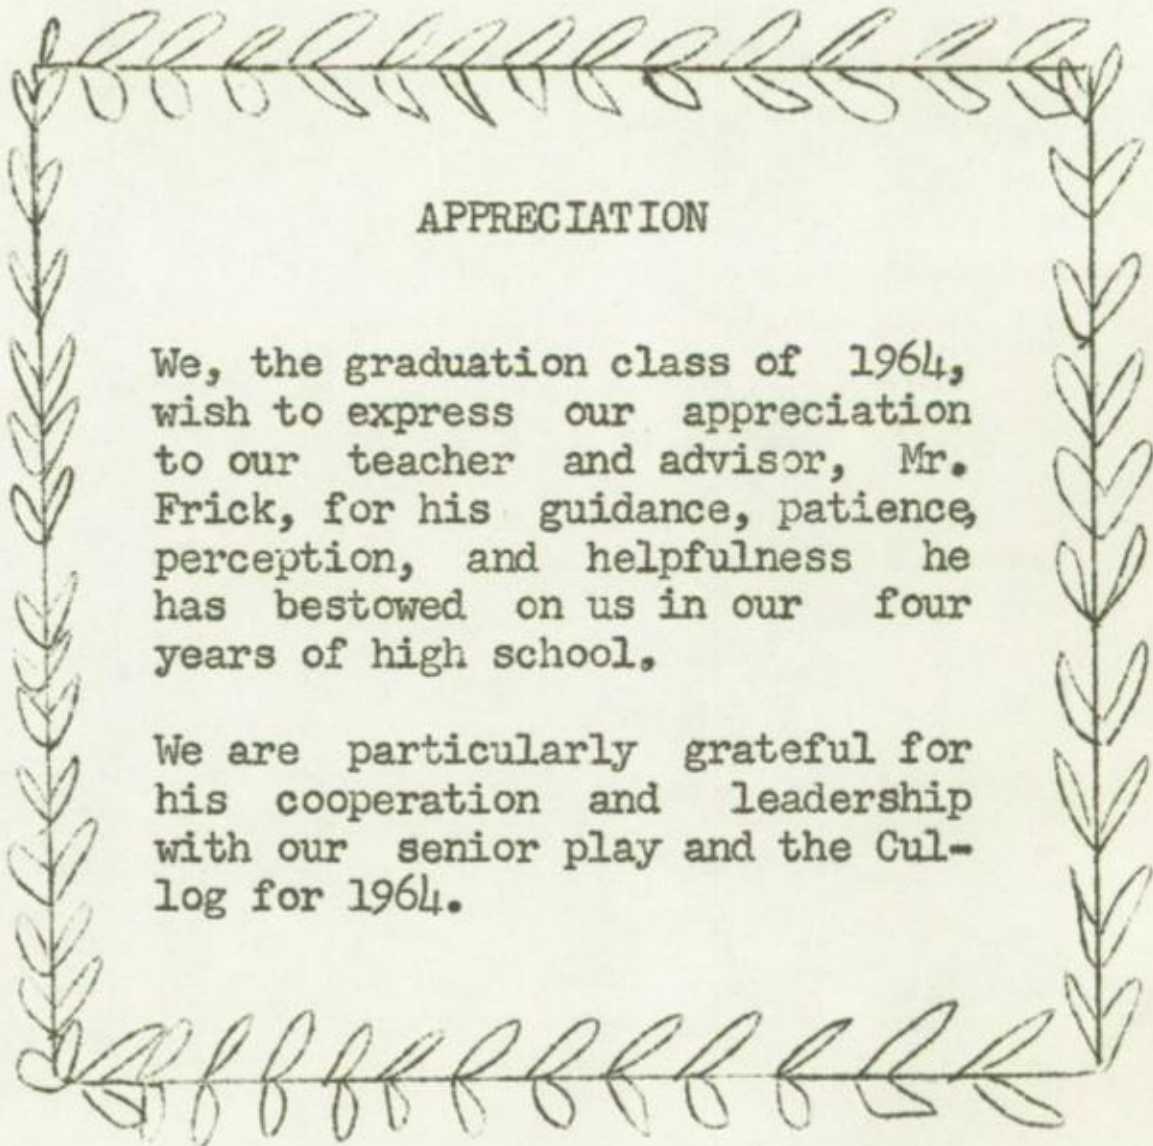

DEDICATION

The Senior Class of 1964 of the Cullom Community High School desires to dedicate this edition of the Cullog to Miss Gisela Lask. We have valued her time, given so generously, and her thoughtfulness for each one of us.

We specifically are appreciative for her organizing our plane trip to Washington and New York and for her companionship on the trip. To her, we say thank you very much.

APPRECIATION

We, the graduation class of 1964, wish to express our appreciation to our teacher and advisor, Mr. Frick, for his guidance, patience, perception, and helpfulness he has bestowed on us in our four years of high school.

We are particularly grateful for his cooperation and leadership with our senior play and the Cul-log for 1964.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1964, being of sound mind and realizing that our happy, care-free days of high school are nearing an end, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament to those justly stated.

I, Judy Donley, bequeath to Dennis York my height in hopes that he will grow tall like me.

I, Lynda Hacker, bequeath my saying "youse guys" to Linda Offill in hopes that she doesn't say it as often as I do.

I, Sandy Clark, bequeath my locker to any new freshman, in hopes that they can keep it cleaner than I did.

I, Marty Dietz, bequeath to Jack Miller all the junk that has accumulated in the bottom of our Physics desk in hopes that he has stomach to clean it out.

I, Martha Wence, bequeath to my brother, David, my good grades and hope that he will do as well.

I, Patty Lewin, bequeath to my sister, Cindy, the ability to have fun in my senior year in hopes that she can have just as much fun as I did.

I, Peg Heeler, bequeath to my sister, Paula, all the fun I've had in High School in hopes she will put it to good use.

I, Karen Morrisette, bequeath to my sister, Paulette, all the fun I've had and the great memories of my four years in High School.

I, Sue Henrichs, Bequeath my pleasure in moving to Cullom to anyone who should make such a venture.

I, Sheri Hayslette, bequeath all the good times and fun I've had at C.C.H.S. to the incoming freshmen, in hopes they enjoy it as much.

I, Doug Satterfield, bequeath my locker to any incoming freshman.

I, Terry Clark, bequeath to Greg Kane the knack of hardly working as a manager (though he apparently does not need it).

I, Ron Riebe, bequeath to Mike Haberkorn my good luck in hopes.

he will do better next year in sports than I did.

I, Denny Clark, bequeath to Joe Sterrenberg my ability to skip study hall without being caught.

I, Sharon Gassler, bequeath to Barbara Deany and Virginia Dietz all the fun I have had my last four years and my ability to come through with a smile in between, knowing they will do a fine job.

I, Lester Whaley, bequeath my ability to stay out of trouble to Mike Haberkorn in hopes that he will do as well as I.

I, David Henrichs, bequeath to Larry Groskruetz all the food he can eat in the next two years of school in hopes that he can run fewer laps in P.E. Class

I, David Haag, bequeath to Bob Magee my ability to get along with the cooks in hopes he will grow bigger than I did.

I, Danny Hahn, bequeath my assortment of blonds, redheads, brunettes to Jerry in hopes that he can keep them as happy as I did.

I, Teresa Kiley, bequeath all the fun I've had my senior year in Spanish Class to any Spanish II student in hopes he will enjoy it as much as I have.

We, the Seniors of 1964, bequeath to the Freshmen the ability to find and have good, clean fun and our punctuality in getting to English Class on time.

We, the Seniors of 1964, bequeath to the Sophomores our ability to keep the teachers happy along with all our wonderful memories.

We, the Seniors of 1964, bequeath to the Juniors our zeal and co-operative ways in working together in hopes that they will gain from them in earning money for the trip.

We, the Seniors of 1964, bequeath to the faculty the hope that the classes to follow us will be as enjoyable as ours.

We, the Seniors of 1964, bequeath to the cooks the memories of our "pan-lickin" days.

We, the Seniors of 1964, bequeath to the janitors all the conglomeration which has accumulated during our past four years in CCHS.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, WE, the Class of 1964, the testators, have to this will, set our hands and seal this _____ day of _____ in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-four.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR TRIP

Tuesday, May 28, 1963, thirty-three Juniors, Seniors, and their advisors, Miss Lask, Mrs. Murphy, and Mr. and Mrs. Knox left for a fun-filled week to New York and Washington D.C. We left by bus at 2:00 a.m. for O'Hara Airport to board a DC-7 United Airlines. By the way, we were the first Juniors and Seniors ever to go by plane.

On the first day, we landed in Washington D.C. and from there went by chartered bus to the Henry Hudson Hotel in New York City. After checking into our rooms, we changed, ate, and went to the stage play, "Too True To Be Good". Everyone left during intermission and had the rest of the night free until 1:00 a.m. During that time many of the students visited Rockefeller Center, Times Square, and Broadway.

The second day of our trip, we rose early and went to St. John of the Divine Cathedral. From there we went to the UNITED NATIONS BUILDING where we split up in groups and were given a guide who represented a country in the world. After we ate dinner we went on a cruise around Manhattan Island, where we went to see Miss Liberty and climbed the steps to her head. It proved to be very challenging!! After the cruise, we went to the Empire State Building and were whisked to the top for a bird's eye view of New York. That evening we attended a performance at Radio City Music Hall which featured a stage show with the wonderful Rockettes and the movie, "Spencer's Mountain". To conclude our evening we went to the top of the RCA Building and saw New York at night. What a beautiful sight!!!

On the third day of our joyous trip, we were off for Washington D.C. When we reached Washington, we visited the Smithsonian Institution, Taft Memorial, Library of Congress, Archives Building, and an Art Gallery. After we finished our tours, we checked into the beautiful Sheraton Park Hotel. In the few hours of free time, we had fun swimming and meeting other people before we left on a Moonlight Cruise down the Potomac with dancing and lots of fun enjoyed by everyone. While on the cruise, we stopped at Marshall Hall, an amusement park.

On the fourth and final day of our trip, we went to the Bureau of Printing and Engraving. Later we went to Lincoln, Washington, and Jefferson Memorials. Then we visited the White House and toured the Capitol Building before going to Arlington Cemetery and Mount Vernon.

Everyone arrived back at Cullom safe and sound. Everyone was tired but happy they had gone on such a worth-while trip!!!

Things become complicated when Melissa Dugan, the girl Homer has been writing to, comes to get married. Homer does a very good job of discouraging Bertha and encouraging Melissa.

"1989 WINTER OLYMPICS"

Gene: Hello there, sports fans, this is Gene Weller broadcasting to you from the location of the 1989 Olympics here in the beautiful Swiss Alps. Before the start of the first event, let's turn our attention to some of the prominent figures in our crowd here today. Over to my right, I see the world-renowned playboy, Dan Hahn, who is now living a life of luxury right here in the Alps. He automatically became one of the world's wealthiest men when his invention of the atomic-powered watch was made known to Swiss watchmakers. Hello, Mr. Hahn.

Dan: Hi, Gene.

Gene: I suppose you enjoy having the Olympics right in your backyard this year, eh Mr. Hahn?

Dan: Yes, yes, I've always enjoyed all types of athletics.

Gene: I suppose I'll be seeing you later at the women's figure skating event?

Dan: No, I regret that I must go home and supervise the preparation of my mansion for a party I am throwing tonight. My ex-classmates and I are celebrating the 25th anniversary of our graduation from Cullom High School. No doubt you know a few of them. Over by the ski-lift talking to those men are Pat Lewin and Karen Morrisette. Pat is now secretary to Ron Riebe, head of Intercontinental Spaceways. And Karen, who was Miss America of 1968, is the director of the Miss Universe Pageant. That couple talking to the judges over there is Dave Haag and Sue Henrichs. They won the couples' figure skating gold medal in the 1970 Olympics, and they now coach our U.S. Olympic skaters. The judge on the left, by the way, is Dave Henrichs. He has been engaged in athletics since his high school days.

Gene: Say, who's that over by the toboggan run? I'm sure I've seen him before.

Dan: That's Lester Whaley, president of General Motors. His ambition was to make millions, and as you see he has succeeded. Over there in that black Rolls-Royce are his traveling secretary, Sheri Hayslette, and his chauffeur, Doug Satterfield. You might be interested to know that the ski-jump, one of the world's most trying, was built under the supervision of Terry Clark, one of the world's great architectural engineers. And the complex computer which tallies the scores of this Olympic meet was designed by Martin Dietz, who holds a doctorate in electrical engineering. I must go get my house ready for the dinner party now, but if you would like to know more about my classmates, I'll introduce you to Sharon Gassler, official receptionist for the Olympics.

Gene: That'll be fine. Is she near here?

Dan: As a matter of fact, here she comes now. Sharon, I'd like you to meet Gene Weller, who is covering the Olympic meet for ABC. Gene, this is Sharon Gassler. Sharon, I've just been giving Gene some short biographies of our classmates, but I have to go get my house ready for the party now, and I'm sure you'd be glad to tell him about the others.

Sharon: Certainly, Dan, I'll see you tonight.

Gene: As official receptionist, I suppose you have met a few of them as they got off their planes.

Sharon: Yes, in fact I have here a list of the ones I have met so far.

Gene: Fine, tell me something about them.

Sharon: Judy Donley, Hollywood hair stylist, is now touring Europe exhibiting some of the unique hair styles which she has popularized in America. Traveling with her is Teresa Kiley, who is not only modeling Judy's coiffures but is also giving Europeans a glimpse of some of the coming American fashions in clothes, many of which she designed herself. Martha Wence, who was the valedictorian of our class, is now a consultant to the IBM Corporation, and she is overseeing the operation of the score-keeping machines here at the Olympics. Lynda Hacker is chief nurse for the participants in the Olympic games, but her job is an easy one indeed since Peg Heeler, noted math professor, contrived a formula for a snow additive which almost completely prevents accidents among skiers. Two of our classmates, Dennis Clark and Sandra Clark, will not be able to make it for the dinner party tonight, but they will be here for the dance later. Dennis is participating in the World's Champion Bowling Tournament in New York early this evening, but he will catch Intercontinental Spaceways Flight 707000, on which Sandra is a stewardess, as soon as the tournament is over.

Gene: Well, I see that the bobsled event is about to begin, so I had better be moving over there and begin my coverage of that event. Thank you very much for the information you have given me about your former classmates.

JUNIOR PROM

On May 15 the junior class welcomed everyone to "Southern Dreamland". The gymnasium was hardly recognizable. On stage was a big, old fashioned southern mansion. Lots of magnolia trees, flowers from the ceiling, and a big fountain in the center of the gym gave everyone the feeling of being in a southern garden. A riverboat floated down the river in a mural on one side of the Mountain scenery and a couple watching the boat completed the picture.

Refreshments were served from a magnolia blossom decorated table by the junior class mothers. Everyone danced the night away to the music of Earl Beatorne and his orchestra who were seated under a flower decorated arbor. Mr. Blankenberg of Kankakee photographed couples who wanted to preserve the special moments of the prom in a picture.

CHORUS

The vocal department was also very active during the year. The first big event was the Livingston County Vocal Festival in Fairbury to which we sent fifteen chorus members. Immediately following the County Festival five of our students were invited to participate in the state sponsored district festival in Champaign.

The winter concert held December twelfth was next on our schedule of several performances this year. At this program our mixed chorus, girls chorus, and boys chorus all performed sacred Christmas music and seasonal secular music.

Our program of folk music and spirituals featured our small ensembles as well as our three main choruses. The chorus music consisted of such numbers as "Once In Love with Amy," "Jeanie with the Light Brown Hair," and "Ain't-a That Good News."

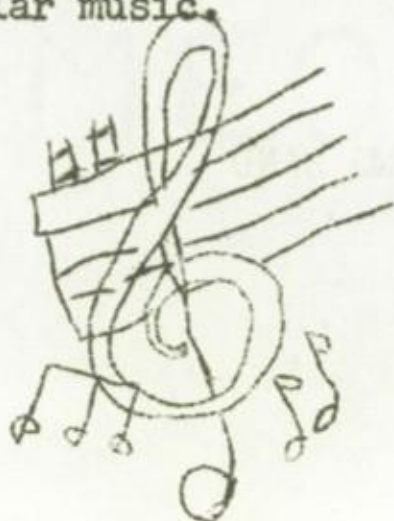

All of our choruses and small ensembles again performed at our annual spring concert in May.

The final two high points of the school year was our participation in the Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises.

This year saw the formation of our Girls Barbershop Quartet. This group of four young ladies began rehearsing in November and performed at many school and community activities throughout the year. We are extremely proud of our "Fourtunettes."

The mixed ensemble, consisting of fifteen members, rehearsed at noon and sang a varied program of folk tunes, spirituals, and show tunes.

Our Girls ensemble of nine members rehearsed at noon under the direction of Mrs. Harp. They performed at our concerts singing a variety of secular music.

MARCHING BAND

Music during this past school year has played a very important part in the school curriculum, in extra curricular activities, and in presenting concerts throughout the year. The choruses, small ensembles, and the band achieved a new high in quality, musicianship, and performance.

The Cullom High School Marching Ramblers began the school year in July with a summer band program. These rehearsals consisted of marching as well as playing. Our first performance took place preceeding the balloon ascension at the Cullom Homecoming Fair in August. The band presented a halftime show at all home football games. These shows included: "Junior Joins the Band" and "Diet Riot." Shortly after the marching season, two of our band members were selected to attend the district all-state band festival at Champaign.

The evening of December twelfth, the band and choruses presented "Music for a Winter Evening." The band program consisted of such members as Ensenada and High School Cadets. Also, during the year the band played at all home basketball games.

The morning of February 1, thirteen band members boarded a bus to the annual Livingston County Band Festival in Dwight. The band rehearsed in the afternoon and played a concert in the evening. It was a very worth-while day.

March fifth was the date of our second program of the year. The band, choruses, and small ensembles combined talents in a "Salute to American Music." This program was entirely composed of American folk tunes and spirituals. Two of the band numbers were a novelty arrangement of "Pop Goes the Weasel" and a suite of three folk tunes entitled "American Hertiage." At this program the band members proudly displayed their new uniforms for the first time.

The annual spring concert was held on the seventh of May, featuring the choruses, band, and small ensembles.

The final performance for our Marching Ramblers was on Memorial Day when we led a parade to the cemetery to salute those who made the supreme sacrifice for their country.

C.C.H.S. FOOTBALL

Cullom's football team was not too proficient in its season this year; but in the future, the team promises a better record of winnings next year as several underclassmen are experienced. The Junior Varsity football squad enables underclassmen to get experience in playing other area teams in real game action. The Junior Varsity was also successful in winning the Ramblers' only game of the season over Gilman.

Although the Ramblers usually were able to score, they were outscored in touchdowns as well as defensively, principally because of the Ramblers' small size in both weight and number. The Ramblers lost all their games except one in which they were able to tie Onarga Military.

The Ramblers will be without two of their main men, David Haag and Lester Whaley, next year as well as two other seniors--Dennis Clark and Danny Hahn.

At the start of the season, Lester Whaley and David Haag were elected co-captains.

Vermillion Valley Conference Coaches elected three Cullom squadmen to All-Conference stature at the close of the season. David Haag was elected to the All-Conference team as quarterback, while Barry Corban and Darrell Satterfield received honorable mention as fullback and guard respectively.

Cornell led throughout the first half, but was unable to contend with Bernard Cox's 16-point second half splurge and the overall free throw shooting of the Cullom team. The rest of the upper classmen and some sophomores had a disappointing season. I will say that our specialists did a good job. Jack Miller snapped on punts, Jack Shearer kicked extra points and punted as did Dave Haag. Barry Corban held on extra points and Lester Whaley and Dave Haag kicked-off. Shearer should be ready next year to do a yeoman's job with his foot.

Our basketball team worked hard this season. They had a good attitude toward winning and were good sports when they lost.

The team's record was 14-10. One reason we lost ten games was the fact that we played almost all our tough games away from home. Our team had to be nearly perfect to beat most of the bigger teams. We didn't have the running speed nor the height to compare with most teams.

David Haag was our leading scorer, followed closely by David Henrichs and Barry Corban.

David Henrichs was our leading rebounder, and Joe Sterrenberg was second.

Barry Corban shot 73% on his free throws, followed by Jack Shearer-70%, David Henrichs-67%, David Haag-66%, and Joe Sterrenberg-60%.

Next year's team should be a conference contender.
